

Article 12 – Other Montgomery County Civic Associations

Section 1- The Kemp Mill Civic Association endeavors to be a good organizational citizen of Montgomery County, Maryland, and to work alongside neighboring civic associations for the wellbeing of the entire County.

Section 2- The Kemp Mill Civic Association will remain a full member in good standing of the Montgomery County Civic Federation or its successor organization.

Section 3- The President, with the support of a majority of Board members, will appoint Members to serve as the Association’s voting representatives (“Representatives”) on the Montgomery County Civic Federation (“Civic Federation”). Representatives must cast votes in accordance with an official position of the Kemp Mill Civic Association, as established at a Meeting of the Members or at a Board meeting.

Section 4- Representatives may request that the President add an issue before the Civic Federation to the agenda of a Meeting of the Members. In such a case, the membership will discuss the issue and vote on whether to adopt an official position, and—if so—what that position should be.

Section 5- If the representatives would like the Kemp Mill Civic Association to adopt an official position on an issue before the Civic Federation that arises between quarterly membership meetings, the representatives may request that the President convene a Board meeting to discuss the issue. In such a case, the Board will discuss the issue and vote on whether to adopt an official position, and—if so—what that position should be.

Section 6- Nothing in this Article prohibits a representative from voting on an administrative or procedural motion consistent with Robert’s Rules of Order, such as seconding a motion, voting to approve minutes, or voting to adjourn.
